

THE CENTER
FOR CONTEMPORARY ART
SUMMER
ART CAMPS

JUNE 19-SEPTEMBER 1 REGISTER TODAY!

This summer we look forward to welcoming back campers, ages 5-15, to The Center for eleven weeks of in person Summer Art Camps that will provide them with the opportunity to explore their creative side while having fun!

Each week children ages 5-8 and 9-11 will spend the morning exploring drawing, painting, collage and other mixed media projects, and pottery in our ceramics studio. In the afternoon, campers ages 9-11 will explore a wide range of subjects in depth such as drawing, painting, pottery, upcycled art, cartooning, manga/anime and more.

Teens ages 12-15 may choose to spend their mornings or afternoons in an intensive art camp studying a single subject.

- In-person camps led by professional, experienced, and creative teaching artists
- Curriculum tailored to three individual age groups
- Projects and themes vary weekly
- Small classes, social distancing, daily sanitizing and other protocols in place and enforced to keep your child safe
- Tuition includes all art supplies for Summer Art Camps unless otherwise stated

Register by March 1 and receive $25 off per registration, per child!

Click here to learn more and register online

The Center is Seeking Summer Camp Aides

Really love children and want to build volunteer hours? Limited spaces are available this summer to assist instructors during The Center's weekly summer art camps. Must be 16+, reliable, able to multitask and organized. If you are interested or have any questions please contact our Education Programs Manager, Rachel Aponte, at raponte@ccabedminster.org.

2020 Burnt Mills Road, Bedminster, NJ 07921 • (908) 234-2345 • www.ccabedminster.org